

BettesMakes and Copious Crafts Weekly Newsletter November 30

Here we are on Black Friday weekend and the sales are absolutely amazing, for sure! Today I am sharing with you my folded tree before I release the video and blog article. You are going to love this one!

Preparing for the December Holidays

Tomorrow is December 1st and I am excited about doing some more crafting! I finally finished my filming of the advent calendar along with another cute Christmas tree project. I am particularly excited about the advent calendar as a friend of mine, Wendy Dewar Hughes, did all the art work and it is so unbelievably gorgeous! Take a look...

What a time and the honor we are doing with this Hall. Colorful Delia! How

YouTube Video of the Week

This video is fairly short but is packed full of information on how to make your own SVG file and use vinyl on wood. I hope you will enjoy this one!

Suppliers - There are lots of Black Friday Deals

Did you Get Your Black Friday Deals this week?

This week the FREE font bundles were outstanding - I downloaded mine right away - you can use any of the downloads from Design Bundles for personal use. I recently found out that I got free files on Wednesday as well! Even when I make my own designs, I still love using other FREEBIES - they give me more ideas on what to create. This week the fonts were very cursive so I will be able to incorporate them into my design. Join their program for free and search for the FREEBIE FRIDAY items. You will never regret it.

CraftStash - This company has been putting up some amazing deals as Black Friday approaches. I love the Hunky Dory items! They are becoming my go to place for items you cannot get at retailers in North America (they have a USA site - the image below will take you right there).

My Checklist

Ideas are never an issue with me, it is the time to make everything that is the big issue. As you can imagine, looking at something you know you can make on your own is never ending. This week I also learned about making my own handwritten gifs with moving text. All done in Photoshop plus I learned a great deal about using grids of all types for making designs. I will be posting new projects using these new processes in the coming week.s

Have you ever tried to make handmade gifs?

Make sure you get all of my holiday digital paper from my resource library.

My list of projects - completed:

1. Advent Calendar - due by next Friday - yes, all done now for the editing!
2. Folded Tree - I added this one when I saw something similar on the web - designed and made this one - oh, so cute!

Yet to be Completed

2. Holiday Wreath - using a styrofoam circle with ribbons and cardstock for the leaves - final touches - still in design
3. Dry Embossing - final touches for this amazing craft
4. Personalized Pillow Covers - Iron-on vinyl project
5. Iron-On Infusible Inks - these will go on T-Shirts with crafting sayings

I know this looks busy but it is so much fun to work on these projects - Now that Thanksgiving is over - what crafts will you be making?

Are you ready to instruct for Michael's? Michaels is still looking for more crafting instructors - be sure to check it out. <https://michaels.com/instructors> and <https://michaels.ca/instructors>
