A special Valentine's digital paper is in store for you today. This one is so cute, you are going to love it. Be sure to go to the end of this newsletter and get more details on this week's FREE downloadable.

Each week brings exciting new projects - What are you Making this Weekend?

BTW - if you missed any of these newsletters, the archives are in the resource library - at the end of the list of files.

This Week's Blog Article - Valentines Banner

This banner does not just have to be for Valentine's Day - you can make the same banners and add other greetings or congratulatory messages instead. This is an easy project to do, all you need is vinyl and cardboard to get started. Just think - Birthdays, Anniversaries, Graduation, Parties of Any Kind!

This is a perfect craft for recycling cardboard pieces you get in packaging. I also used scraps of vinyl from other projects as the objects being cut are on the small side. I hope you give this one a try.

Just remember that all of my templates are FREE - nothing to buy! As a subscriber, you have free access to download anything you wish to use in your own projects.

Downloads Available this Week.

I usually shop at both these locations when there are great sales. Now is the time! I even buy birthday presents ahead of the curve because of all the deals.

Design Bundles has more to offer as well - their sales pricing is amazing to say the least. Click on this banner to see if they have more sales this weekend.
