

BettesMakes Weekly Newsletter February 8

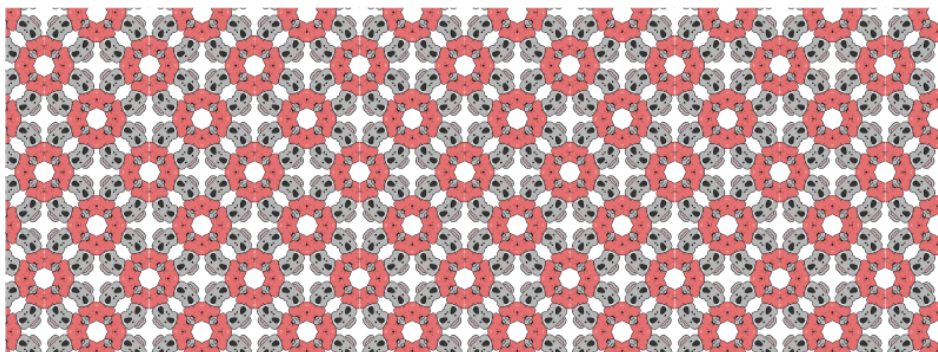

Valentine's Day is next Friday! Are you ready? A look into Terrazzo designs is your weekly freebie. You can use these in many ways with your craft making. Take a look at the end of this newsletter for more details and how to download your copy.

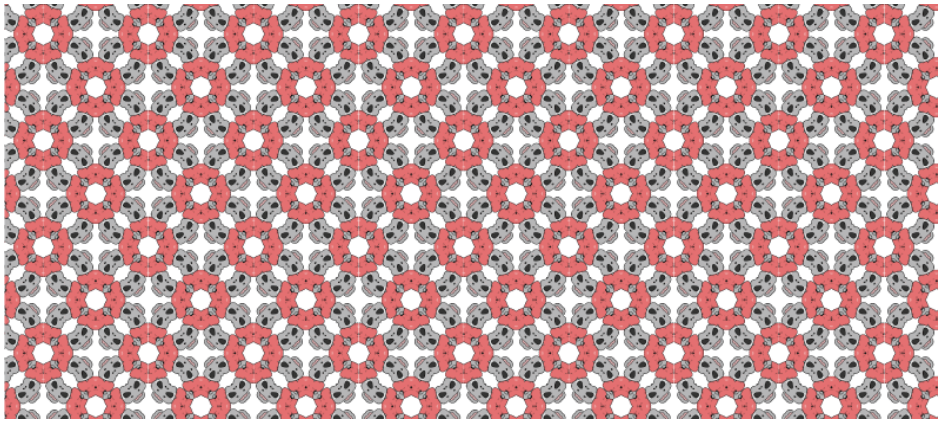

Learning a New Skill - A Weekly Quest

My quest for learning new skills is still strong! At first it became something that was idealistic and now it is ingrained enough that I am actually looking for new skills to add to my every growing list.

This week it was designing Terrazzo Tiles in Illustrator. I learned at least 4 different ways to create these without having the hassle of drawing each small image. I will be sharing my designs as my weekly freebie. They are published in a digital paper format to make it easier for you to incorporate into your designs.

Of course, one skill was not enough for the week. I finally got a chance to play with Adobe Capture on my mobile phone. WOW - incredible designs came out of my noodling around - check this one out! This is a Koala holding a heart! I pushed this one into the resource library for you as well.

This Week's Blog Article - Valentine's Day Popup Card

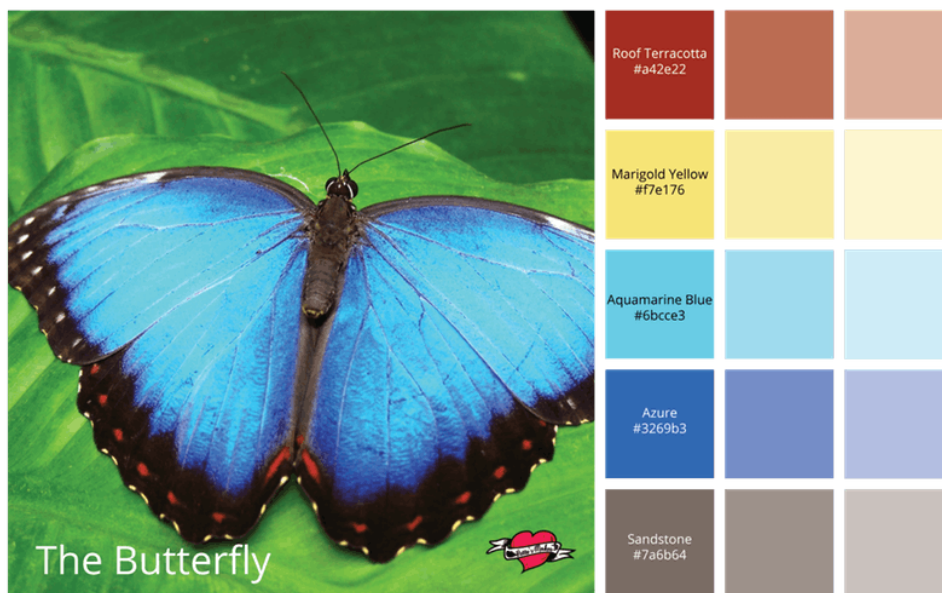

The step-by-step for the Valentine's popup card is finally completed, and just in time for you to make several for Friday!

BTW - if you missed any of these newsletters, the archives are in the resource library - at the end of the list of files.

My Color Palette For This Week

This week I found a stock photo from GraphicStock to use for a palette. This butterfly is gorgeous and the colors fit in with Pantone's trending color of the year, a classic blue. I love blues and this butterfly is absolutely amazing!

There is still time to make this one - Valentines Banner

You could even adjust this banner to make it a super bowl banner - all you need is some imagination and a few cut outs to make it work.

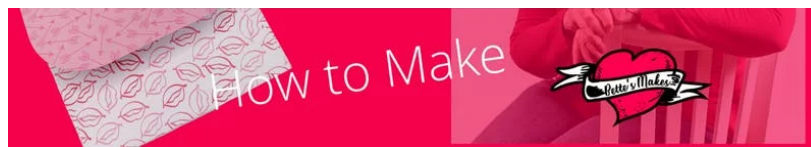

Just remember that all of my templates are FREE - nothing to buy! As a subscriber, you have free access to download anything you wish to use in your own projects.

Video of the Week - Valentine's Popup Card

Here is the video for our Valentine's Popup Card - you will need to use Design space and a few sheets of cardstock to make this one. It actually took my under 1 hour to make it and when I did 2 at a time, it was only a few minutes more. The longest stretch was letting the glue dry. I do hope you enjoy this one.

Craftstash is always giving things away with every order.

I am always amazed at the number of free items I have been getting because I buy many of my supplies through Craftstash. Checkout this weekend's specials by clicking on the banner below.

Create Your Own Fonts or Purchase These at VERY Low Prices

There are some absolutely amazing deal at font bundles. I often scan through their catalog to get just the perfect font for my projects. Take a look, you may be pleasantly surprised at the variety available to you and extremely reasonable prices.

More FREE resources - Design Bundles just keeps on giving!

This Week's Freebie!

Terrazzo patterns are all the rage when it comes to adding color to images. This week you can download a few of my designs and use them in your own crafts.

The image below shows one of my designs enlarged into pieces and the addition of the designs into some of the smaller objects. I do hope you will be able to get the most out of these in your crafting.

I made this one so I could print it as a cover to a notebook. I have added this design into the resource library as well.

Look For the ZIP file Terrazzo Designs.
