

BettesMakes Weekly Newsletter July 18

Each week, you will receive my newsletter which has a project or two you can make plus a FREE downloadable you will not find in the resource library. This week I have SVGs for Coloring Book Day! Just go to the bottom of the newsletter to get your FREE downloadable.

I Hope You Got In On the Latest Cricut Mystery Box!

As I find out about the mystery boxes, I will be posting the links to the Facebook Group so you can grab yours. I got one last week and by surprise there was another one on Thursday. You just never know when they will go on sale. These mystery boxes are generally $39.95 and have approximately $140 of product in them. I got 8 rolls of premium, iron-on and glossy vinyls plus 3 packages of other 12 x 12 papers and a really cool fat clear ruler! It took only a couple of days to arrive on my doorstep. Please note, I am not a Cricut affiliate so am buying at the same price as you. I will always get a code for you to give you another 10% off plus free shipping. You do have to buy $50 to get that discount. I often add a couple of mats to make up the $50 then don't have to pay for shipping and save $5 on my purchase. What a great deal! I will always post these in the Facebook group. <https://facebook.com/groups/bettesmakes> - make sure you join the group to get the notices.

I will also be adding deals that I find with Font Bundles and Design Bundles as I am notified.

How has your week been? I have been busy designing a few things so I can add to my YouTube Channel plus I was able to get out and play some tennis with my tennis club. I am still very wary of being in close proximity of others but the tennis club had lots of rules in place to make sure we were socially distant

This Week's Blog Article - Coloring Pages are Still Hot! (to go with our coloring pages theme)

If you think coloring pages have come and gone, think again! There is a resurgence of this fun relaxing time passer. The best fun is making your own!

BTW - if you missed any of these newsletters, the archives are in the resource library - at the end of the list of files.

My Color Palette For This Week - Pink Hydrangea

This color palette is from my own Hydrangea plant in the front yard. The soil in the pot where it lives has less iron than most and the color is glorious. I do hope you enjoy this one!

The Glue I love!

I will leave this in the newsletter as I have been using this glue more and more! I love it when I find something that will help me make my mats tacky again after cleaning them. I received my package a couple of weeks ago so I could test the product. I am so excited - the stick returned without any issues and I have been using my old mats again. It is called Zig Two Way Glue - it dries permanent when you stick things together or if you let it turn white it stays tacky! I know getting excited over glue is strange but when you are constantly searching for a good glue that will make your mats tacky again and you find one, you are going to share it everywhere!
