

BettesMakes Weekly Newsletter July 25

Each week, you will receive my newsletter which has a project or two you can make plus a FREE downloadable you will not find in the resource library. This week I have SVGs for Book Lovers Day (August 9th)! These files are perfect for making cards or T-Shirts so just go to the bottom of the newsletter to get your FREE downloadable.

Have you Taken Advantage of Freebie Friday!

I am always downloading free fonts and design files and saving them for future projects. I not only download from this perfect SVG site but also from a photography site as well. I am sure most of us all like to get a freebie from reputable site.

Let's start with Freebie Friday - This one is from Font Bundles and it is well worth getting on their mailing list! Click here to sign up: <https://bit.ly/MyFontBundles>.

The photo site I use is Deposit Photos - I get 4 free downloads of high quality images, vectors, and videos each week - you do not need to buy anything from them, simply get on their email list. Here is the link to their site:

I hope you are able to get all those Freebies - it only takes less than a minute to sign up!

This Week's Blog Article - Cutting Acrylic with Your Cricut

I know I have posted this one before but I thought it would be worth mentioning again. I started cutting shapes from my packing that came from Costco! The containers from Spinach or fruits is perfect for cutting and using with shaker cards! And there are so many more places you can use this! You can even make your own molds from this plastic with a heat gun (they are not perfect but they work for doing some of the molds for making almost anything!

BTW - if you missed any of these newsletters, the archives are in the resource library - at the end of the list of files.

My Color Palette For This Week - Wildflowers

Week 29 - This image was from a friend who has recently been diagnosed with Cerebral Palsy. He is now in a wheelchair but still loves photography. I love the wildflowers and these pink ones are magnificent! I would guess that these would make a gorgeous bouquet but I do not have the heart to pick them!

Video of the Week - How to Make a Cute Handmade Birthday Card

The title of this card does not say it all! There are cut outs, drawings, and a place for you to add some of your own color with pens, paints, or markers. I sent one of these to my daughter and she was amazed and thought it took hours to create. Little did she know that after I did the design, it was simple when I used my Cricut.

The Glue I love!

I will leave this in the newsletter as I have been using this glue more and more! I love it when I find something that will help me make my mats tacky again after cleaning them. I received my package a couple of weeks ago so I could test the product. I am so excited - the stick returned without any issues and I have been using my old mats again. It is called Zig Two Way Glue - it dries permanent when you stick things together or if you let it turn white it stays tacky! I know getting excited over glue is strange but when you are constantly searching for a good glue that will make your mats tacky again and you find one, you are going to share it everywhere!

I am still not sure about the name Bootcamp and would like to change it to something a little more soothing. Any ideas for a new name? The name right now is Cricut Design Space Bootcamp.
